RE: RANDOLPH WILLIAM MILLER

CAUSE

On March 30, 2007, the offender was released from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons. He failed to report to the probation office within the 72 hour period as required. He contacted the probation office on April 8, 2007. On April 11, 2007, he reported to the probation office and was admonished for not reporting sooner. On April 16, 2007, the offender submitted a urinalysis which was positive for methamphetamine and later admitted to using the drug. As a corrective action, the offender was placed into weekly individual substance abuse treatment and we recommend that alcohol abstinence be added. As a controlling action, we recommend home confinement with electronic monitoring with Miller paying 100% of the costs.

Respectfully submitted,

BRIAN S. SIMON
United States Probation Officer

APPROVED:
CHAD R. BOARDMAN, Supervising
United States Probation Officer
